

Come work with us on Country as a Project Firefighter

Our Designated Aboriginal Positions are a great starting point for a future in Cultural Burning

As part of our ongoing commitment to meaningful careers for current and future First Nations staff, some of our annual Project Firefighter roles are offered as Designated Aboriginal Positions.

Project Firefighters work alongside our permanent firefighting staff and help deliver land management activities and respond to bushfires and other emergencies.

As a Project Firefighter, you'll have access to an exciting career pathway, with training and development opportunities relevant to the role you're performing.

Employment occurs between October and May, dependent on seasonal requirements.

Visit our website for more information or to register your interest in becoming a project firefighter

© The State of Victoria Department of Energy, Environment and Climate Action, June 2024

ISBN 978-1-76136-785-4 (Print)

ISBN 978-1-76136-786-1 (pdf/online/MS word)

Disclaimer

This publication may be of assistance to you but the State of Victoria and its employees do not guarantee that the publication is without flaw of any kind or is wholly appropriate for your particular purposes and therefore disclaims all liability for any error, loss or other consequence which may arise from you relying on any information in this publication.